NARRATIVE:

Webb has an adult criminal history that began at the age of 18 years old and includes convictions for carrying a concealed weapon, suspended license and burglary. He has served two (2) state prison terms, the longest and most recent a 32-month term for carrying a concealed weapon. Webb was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on February 28, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2013 after Webb absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Webb qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for carrying a concealed weapon is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Webb is a member of the "East-side Bolen Parque 13 Gang" with a moniker of "Yesca". His prior criminal history, gang membership and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
